Sometimes in a split second... kill or be killed. It is when the subconscious meets the conscious. That moment, right before you reach the summit of your dreams. For Virgil Daly, it was all of these things and more. A radio talk show host and passionate artist, Virgil is not sure if he is living life to its fullest. But what he does know is... someone wants him dead. Virgil learns that avoiding confrontation is not always possible, and happiness comes at a price. For in every person's life there are times when the only direction to move is forward, the only way forward is down, when the only thing visible is the edge you are standing on.
