Edwin and the Metamorph is an excitingly unfettered account of love and the difficulty humankind has in understanding ourselves and the world around us. Dean Krause's ethereal and transparent prose leads readers on a journey with Edwin, a confused but uncommon man living in a world in which he feels he does not belong. Loka, a woman with mysterious origins emerges as an extraordinary influence on Edwin's life. Employing a particularly enigmatic cast of characters, Krause captures the unexplored This article does not cite any sources. Please help improve this article by adding citations to reliable sources.
