I recently read this book to a group of children at the primary school i was working in last year. All the children in the group thought it was fantastic and once i had finished reading it asked me to read it again. The illustrations in the book enhanced the story.

The range of vocabulary and the sentence lengths in the book were easy for the children to follow throughtout the story, with the childrens attention constantly on the book and what was going to happen next.The boys especially enjoyed I
