On the side of the road, about to give birth, Sara Jamison was in despair--until he stopped by. A vision in a tux, with rough but tender hands, a slow drawl and enough confidence to calm her anxious mind, Sara couldn't do anything but trust Cal Tucker with the most precious thing in her life...

So when he offered his home to her and her brand-new daughter, Sara agreed--just till she got back on her feet. But then he also offered his name--and Sara wasn't sure what to do now. Why did this sexy, generous man think he didn't deserve love? And how could she persuade him otherwise...?
